2018-2023

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING
BETWEEN
SHIVAJI UNIVERSITY, KOLHAPUR
MAHARASHTRA
AND
PRAGJYOTISH COLLEGE, GUWAHATI
AASAM

The Memorandum of understanding is drawn up and agreed upon to establish co-operation between the Shivaji University hereafter to be referred to as SUK and the PJCG.

Shivaji University, Kolhapur named after the founder of Maratha Empire Chhatrapati Shivaji and inaugurated in 1962 by Dr. S. Radhakrishnan the then President of India, is a premier institution of higher education and research in western India. The University is committed to meet the educational, social, cultural and economic needs of the region and is dedicated to promote and foster a culture of high quality teaching, learning and research.

Pragjyotish College, Guwahati-Aasam was established on 1st of September 1954. Eminent scholar and litterateur Pandit Tirthanath Sarma was its founder principal. From its modest inception as an Arts college, Pragjyotish College has now developed into its present stature of a famous full-fledged Degree College, imparting higher education in Arts, Science and Commerce streams. The college also has two post graduate departments, viz. Assamese and Tourism Management. It is affiliated to the Guwahati University and registered under 2(F) and 12 (B) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956. The college has the distinction of being assessed and accredited by the NAAC twice in 2003 and 2010 respectively and was placed in “Grade B in a Four-point scale”, valid up to 2016. The college has done excellent pioneering work in different branches of education. It has generated talents for pursuit of truth, creation, and dissemination of knowledge, and has drawn students from all over the North-east and neighbouring states. The college has inspired innumerable and countless teachers, students and educationists, who have left an indelible mark in the educational scenario of this region. Pragjyotish College is proud to be the ‘grooming ground’ for several eminent personalities in the field of politics, academics, medicine, engineering, beauracracy, judiciary, etc. The college has celebrated its golden jubilee in the year 2004 with a long and continuous programme, spanning for five years. The college has developed its own unique philosophy and vision, mission and programmes of action.

Letter of Understanding B/w WWF-India and Pragjyotish College, Guwahati signed on 4-Oct-2018

ABOUT WWF-INDIA

WWF-India has been working towards wildlife and environment protection in the country since 1969. We are part of the WWF-International network which has offices in more than 100 countries across the globe. We have a national presence in India with over 75 state and field offices distributed across more than 20 states. We work in different geographical regions of the country towards the conservation of key wildlife species, protection of habitats, management of rivers, wetlands and their ecosystems, climate change mitigation, sustainable livelihood alternatives for local communities, water and carbon footprint reduction in industries and combating illegal wildlife trade.

Our mission is to stop the degradation of the planet's natural environment and to build a future in which humans live in harmony with nature.

ABOUT WWFVOLUNTEERS

WWF Volunteers is a platform for citizens from diverse backgrounds and skills to contribute to environment conservation. The programme aims to inspire collective and personal action by creating awareness about the importance of conservation and the role ordinary citizens can play. Through this programme, WWF offers citizens the opportunity for self-growth and discovery. Whether it is an individual or organisation, WWF Volunteers is helping build capacity to communicate research and organise projects for causes.

ABOUT ECHO

WWF-India's Echo is a youth volunteering program that aims to create Environment Conservation Heroes in colleges across the country through bridging the gap between environmental awareness and conservation action. A number of students from each college will work on a conservation action project under a yearly theme and help resolve environmental issues in their college/community/city. At the end of the academic year, a national level summit will be organized, in which each college will showcase their conservation action projects and the impact made. Through innovative ideas and enthusiastic participation, the youth can create a movement to create positive change for the environment.

THE ACTIVITY

WWF-India in partnership with the registered college will launch a volunteering program for youth in colleges, with a year-long membership for the students. Registered students from each college will work on a conservation action project under the theme and help resolve an environmental issue in their college, community or city. WWF-India will provide mentorship, support and guidance for the implementation of the project.

At the beginning of the academic year, a two day workshop will be organized in each college for all registered students. The workshop will include an in depth education on the theme of the year through movie screenings, talks and various interactive activities. It will also include assisted brainstorming

Department of Sanskrit (Sahitya), Kumar Bhaskar Varma Sanskrit and Ancient Studies University, Nalbari

And

Sanskrit Department, Pragjyotish College, Guwahati

This memorandum is executed on this 25th day of January, 2021 at Nalbari, Assam, between Sanskrit (Sahitya) Department, Kumar Bhaskar Varma Sanskrit and Ancient Studies University as the First party and Sanskrit Department, Pragjyotish College, Guwahati as the Second party.

Kumar Bhaskar Varma Sanskrit and Ancient Studies University was established in 2011 by an Act passed in the Assam State Legislative Assembly. The University stands for imparting education leading to graduate and post-graduate degrees and research degrees (M.Phil. and Ph.D.) in Sanskrit and humanities. The department of Sanskrit (Sahitya) of the University started its journey with introduction of Master of Arts programme in 2013. Besides, five year integrated M.A. in Sanskrit (IMS) was started in 2014. The University has adopted a Kalidasean line, 'May the sayings of the wise be glorified' as its Motto.

Pragjyotish College has its campus at Santipur, Bharalumukh, Guwahati. It has been maintaining its reputation as a center for quality education in higher education in Arts, Science and Commerce streams. It is affiliated to the Gauhati University and registered under 2 (F) and 12 (B) of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956. The College has been assessed and accredited by the NAAC twice in 2003 and 2010 respectively and was placed in "Grade B" in a Four-point scale, valid up to 2016. The College has generated talents for pursuit of truth, creation and dissemination of knowledge. The college has celebrated its Golden Jubilee in the year 2004.

The department of Sanskrit, Pragjyotish College has also completed forty-two years' glorious journey with the inception by 1963. It may boast of generating many of the renowned personalities viz., Prof. Rajendra Chandra Mahanta, Prof. Thanesvar Sarma, Sjt Nagendra Nath Sarma, Sjt. Narayan Chandra Sarma Sastri & many others.

INTENT OF WORK

Through the memorandum of understanding based on the principle of equality and mutual benefit, both the departments hereby agree to undertake activities focusing on enrichment of Sanskritic studies in Assam.
