in his report noted the lack of books related to the course in the storage library. Students are not getting the books as referred in the syllabus. She also requested the authority of the college to take care of the students during their first 10 days when students do not maintain discipline. She has advised to buy some books regularly needed by the student equally of 20% committee.

Session by student representative from the 2nd or 3rd level about the non-completion of their course of work. He stated that from the department especially the teachers need to motivate to continue attend the class. But the student are not coming to the class as the 45% of the total term started as soon started in class was not the 1st session. Although pointed out the lack of enthusiasm among the students while in distant activities of the department. She proposed for a first step to motivate the students.

Request shown to give or printed out a list of books among the students to encourage nature of the students.

- ① monthly report on department to be prepared by the class to make the students involved.
- ② conducting students debate/extension speech/quiz to improve the involvement of students.

Dr. Shilpi Das Mahanta stated the objective of the meeting and he told about the importance of Add-on course to be started by the Dept. Dr. Nalini Das summed up the meeting and offered vote of thanks.

Today on 10/31/23 one DDC is held on the topic Add-on Course. As the committee decided that each Department should conduct at least one Add-on Course which may be in blended mode also. The committee suggested for a proper syllabus for running the course.

- 1) The committee is to decide the maximum credit for the course.
- 2) The type of Assessment to be held.
- 3) Add-on Course should involve minimum 30 contact hours.
- 4) All the student of the 2nd semester should be enrolled on the course.

With the suggestion of course committee all faculty members decided to conduct one Add-on Course on the topic Gender and Human Rights. So now according to our departmental DDC we should select one co-ordinator for the course among the faculty members and prepare syllabus for the course, where every faculty member will help.
