2019: Cultural Rally

Groups of students belonging to different departments of Pragjyotish College, Guwahati, participated in an interdepartmental cultural rally organized by Pragjyotish College on January 31, 2019. The winner departments were awarded trophies by Dr. Manoj Kumar Mahanta, the Principal of the college, at the prize distribution ceremony held in front of the Principal's office. The rally showcased the diverse talents of various departments and highlighted the socio-cultural heritage of the province and the nation. The event was a vibrant and colourful display of various acts where every department presented its unique theme. For instance, the Assamese Department portrayed the rich cultural heritage of Assam. The Economics Department was aimed at highlighting the importance of preserving traditional arts and crafts.
